

HUMANE SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL

HSI Symposium on Global Harmonization of Vaccine Testing Requirements.

Making the elimination of ATT and TABST a concrete global achievement.

19th March 2019, Grand Hotel Palatino, Rome (Italy)

Agenda

Welcome

9:00 - HSI opening remarks

9:15 ATT & TABST elimination – The European Success

Moderator: Sunil Goel (The Serum Institute of India)

9:10 – Klaus Cussler (PEI) – Abnormal Toxicity Testing – Origin, propagation and abolition in Europe

10:00 – Lukas Bruckner - The target animal batch safety test: a non suitable tool to demonstrate the safety of veterinary vaccines

10:45 – Coffee Break (15 min)

11:00 – ATT & TABST – Where we are in other regions?

A roundtable with all the Symposium's participants

Moderator: Marlies Halder (European Commission Joint Research Centre)

13:00 – Lunch and break

14:00 – Building a common approach

A working session with all the all the Symposium's participants

Moderator: Laura Viviani (HSI)

16:00 – Coffee Break

16:15 - Drafting the roadmap

A working session with all the all the Symposium's participants

Moderator: Laura Viviani (HSI)

17:15 - Closing Remarks and Next Steps

17:15 - Review of the Working session outcomes and closing remarks

17:50 - Presentation of IABS/Vac2Vac global congress in Bangkok, Dec 2019

18:00 - Closure of the Symposium